A HAIR DRESSING

That is Guaranteed to Make Women's Hair Lustrous and Beautiful, or Your Money Back

Women of culture want a perfect hair dressing; one that is delicately scented and which will make the hair feel better the minute it is put on. They want a dressing that is not sticky or greasy.

And above all, they want a dressing that will make the hair lustrous and fascinating; that will kill the dandruff germs and banish dandruff, and that will stop falling hair and itching scalp.

Parisian Sage, now sold in America, will do all these things, or money back.

That's the offer Levery & Bro. make after investigating the merits of Parisian Sage.

A large bottle only costs 50 cents, and leading druggists everywhere sell it. The girl with the Auburn hair on boxes.

"Parisian Sage rids the scalp and hair of dandruff, makes the growth of hair profuse, and leaves a silky, fluffy, luxuriant appearance. We are glad to endorse the use of Parisian Sage."

—John Null, 31 108th Street, Wheeling, W. Va.

Parisian Sage keeps the head cool in summer, and drives away disagreeable odors arising from perspiration.

FAIRFIELD

Opening of the Fair—List of the Donations—Mr. Turney Improving Rapidly—Bushes of Oysters—Mention of Persons.

Last night's local event of interest was the opening of the Firemen's fair, at the house of the Hook & Ladder Company, and on the grounds of the center school house.

The grounds were brilliantly illuminated by large tungsten electric lights, for the first time in the history of the town. The fair was a smooth and well waxed. There were many attractive side shows, but the most interesting exhibit consisted of a long table covered with the articles donated to the fair. A few of these were as follows: A handsome meerschaum pipe by Dan Smith, of Bridgeport; China tea set in blue and white by D. M. Read; a parlor picture by Smith, Murray & Co.; a ton of coal by C. Buckingham; a parlor table by L. E. Redfern; a carving set by Lyon & Grumman; a food chopper by Smith & Comstock; a clothes wringer by G. W. Smith; a large umbrella by P. E. Redfern; an umbrella for a gentleman by Meigs & Co.; a Derby hat by Maggart & Co.; slippers for a gentleman by S. B. Thing & Co.; a rug made in town, made by M. J. Buchler; a copper boiler by C. A. Wyrtsen; a barrel of flour by Mrs. Wright; and many other articles.

The fair will continue the next two days next week.

One of the physicians who has been attending Washington Turney, since the alarming traces on Saturday night, said yesterday that he is getting on finely and it would not be a matter of surprise to see him down town in a day or two.

There was a report in town yesterday that the recent storm had washed hundreds of oysters on the beach, and people from all over were gathering them by the basket full.

Mrs. J. H. Furness of Southport is arriving from an attack of malaria.

Mrs. R. H. Whiting has given a whist party at her beach cottage, complimentary to Mr. W. E. Ormby of Chicago, and Dr. W. R. Thompson of Omaha.

Mrs. Henry Sturges with her daughters is visiting in Newburg.

Miss Ester Musser has gone on a vacation to Banantam lake.

Judge and Mrs. A. D. Penny are at Savin Rock for a week or two.

Frederick Dayton, of New York, is spending a week in town.

Miss Irma Lounsbury is visiting in Port Chester.

NEWS OF NEWTOWN

Gaffney - Egan Nuptials—Missing Diamond Recovered.

Newtown, Aug. 13.—A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Rose's church this morning at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. Fox performing the ceremony. The contracting parties were Mrs. Mary Gaffney and William Egan. They were assisted by Messrs. Edith Egan and Arthur Gallagher. The bride has been a popular teacher in Walnut Tree Hill school for the past 13 years. She is possessed of a charming disposition and many fine traits of character and her friends are legion. The groom is a life long resident and engaged in the coal business. He is actually well esteemed. After the ceremony the entire party left for Bridgeport in a touring car where they dined at the Stratford Hotel. The happy couple left later for New York where they embarked for Portland, Maine. Their trip will include other points of interest including Canadian ports. On their return they will be "at home" to their friends at the bride's home on Walnut Tree Hill. Congratulations and good wishes for a happy and peaceful future are extended by their many friends.

Master Frederick Leiss of Sandy Hook, an aspiring and promising young Paganini whose successful debut at the musical entertainment at the Town Hall, Friday evening last, has been noted in a previous issue, has been the means of greater happiness to his music teacher than either had anticipated. Shortly after the closing of the program, James W. Gordon discovered the loss of a diamond from a highly prized ring, and after the most careful and diligent search for several days, all hopes were about given up with the exception that, in the handling of the many instruments it might have dropped into some one of the cases. Yesterday Master Leiss presented himself for his customary music lesson and his teacher remarked that she would look through the case, suiting the action to the words. After going through the several small compartments and about to turn away there being her in the main body of the case lay the little shining stone. It did not seem possible but that little stone had laid in the case all the time although the violin had been used daily and had been carried back and forth from Newtown to Sandy Hook and without the best of fastenings.

The back of the violin had several small marks on it as the result of lying on the stone. Master Leiss celebrated his 10th birthday to-day and he was as happy and pleased as if the finding had been his own.

Residents of Newtown street and vicinity are looking forward to another summer night musical treat by a quartette of waiters at the Inn, whose melodious voices were heard to fine advantage on a recent evening.

kept on coming and yesterday the plan was given up and the large tent sent back to New Haven. The next best thing to do was to drive out to the camp with some of the privations to which the boys were treated. Several parties enjoyed a visit to the camp yesterday and to-day. Another large party from Sandy Hook were to have camped on the opposite side of river this week but were likewise disappointed.

Mrs. Henry Ruff, Miss Anna Carlson and Miss Dorette Gordon were visitors at the camp on the House-boat Wednesday through the kindness of Mrs. Ruff.

This evening there is to be a dance at the Inn.

STRATFORD

Condition of Main Street—Moving the Benjamin House—At the Episcopal Rectory—Mr. Bartram's Petition—Promoters—Personal.

It was noticed yesterday with a good deal of satisfaction that stores were being placed along Main street, in front of the Bunnell property, from Church street west, to mark out a permanent curb line, as authorized by the last town meeting. It is hoped this line continues to Broad street, and that in good time both sides of Main street will have a curb. The recent rains have shown the town what a mistake it was to leave wide strip of dirt road-way between the curb and the portion which has been macadamized. The result is a mud bed which makes the street difficult to cross and gives intelligent citizens the hope that Commissioner MacDonald will not accept the road as it now is. In the center of the business district, for the past few days, it has been almost impossible to cross the street with any degree of comfort.

Yesterday preparations were begun for moving back the old Benjamin house so-called, although it was at one time the McEwen residence. The old fashioned chimneys are to be moved with the structure, and will be held up by great timbers.

There was a well attended fair and sale at the Episcopal rectory yesterday afternoon, by those interested in the work done by the boys and girls of the auxiliary societies. Their handiwork was displayed in the dining room of the rectory, and made a brave show. Much of it is intended for a Christmas box which will be sent to the Santee Agency in Northern Nebraska. A lot of little dresses, ponies, skirts, etc., intended for Indian babies, were on exhibition, and there was a handsome quilt all placed by the boys. This is intended for the wife of the agent at Santee, if he has one, and if he hasn't he can have the whole of it himself. Six dolls will go into the box and a large number of bags for candles when the Xmas time arrives. And money will be sent with which to purchase the sweets. Baskets woven by the boys and girls made in town, were on sale and found ready purchasers. The piazza of the rectory was trimmed with golden flowers, and there was a bountiful collection of cakes, cream, etc.

John Lynch of Honey Spot House, has applied for a liquor license.

Herbert Bartram reports that he has had no difficulty in getting the number of names signed to his petition, as required by law, giving the citizens of the town the right to vote upon the license or no license question whenever they wish to do so.

Edith O'Connor has issued a postal notice to his friends and parishioners reminding them that a vegetable and food sale for the benefit of St. James' building fund will be held on Saturday next, afternoon and evening, on the lawn of St. James' rectory. He cordially invites all lovers of fresh vegetables and the friends of every good cause to be present and help swell the fund.

Housatonic Grange holds its annual outing this evening at Lehmann's shore resort at the foot of Seaview avenue. Supper will be served at 8:30.

Frederick Dayton has sold his farm in western Canada, and reports that he is doing well.

The committee in charge of the Grange dinner tonight are Mrs. Whitcox, William Beardsley and Nathan E. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. George Secor are home from the Berkshires.

Miss Curtis, sister of Mrs. Arthur V. Sammis, has returned to New York.

Miss Ellen Abbott has been visiting her parents on Blakeman place.

IN LOCAL LODGE ROOMS

The members of Mayflower council, D. of A., decided at a meeting last night to hold a fair in October and have appointed a committee of which Mr. W. H. Potter is chairman, to make arrangements Sunday. A number of the members of the order will enjoy an outing to Savin Rock.

At the meeting of Monitor lodge, I. O. O. F., last evening Charles Linquist was chosen chairman of a committee to make arrangements for the 25th anniversary of the lodge, October 14.

Waldmere council O. U. A. M. will hold a clambake at Homelock grove next week at which a game of baseball will be indulged in by Waldmere and Uncas councils.
